

by that darkest moment in history, particularly in view of the site upon which we stand today—adjacent to New York's Holocaust Museum, which is under construction behind us.

New York is home to one of the world's largest number of Holocaust survivors. New York State understands the importance of remembering and teaching about the Holocaust. Toward that end, I am proud of the fact that New York State has allocated $10 million dollars to the construction of the New York Holocaust museum. And many of us will be returning next month for the formal dedication of this museum. Israel has meant rebirth for the Jewish people. It is for this reason that I know George Klein was right when he suggested that we celebrate Israel and Jerusalem right here, next to this museum.

Once again, I would like to thank all of you for coming, and may we all hope and pray for a peaceful and secure Jerusalem for another 3000 years and for all time to come. May God bless you all. •
